

National Conference on NanoCode - Korea

International Conference Room, Korea Institute of Science and Technology (KIST), Seoul.
November 28 (Mon), 2011.

As an Associated member for EU FP7 NanoCode Project, KIST(Korea) is organizing the National Conference to introduce the work of the NanoCode Project and discuss relevant issues among stakeholders concerning the ethical aspect of Nanotechnology Research and Development, particularly in Korea.

Chair, Jungil Lee

14:00-14:30, EU FP7 NanoCode - EU CoC, Master Plan & CodeMeter

YoonSuhn Chung (KIST) 10 mins., Discussion 20 mins.

14:30-15:00, Korean Response - NanoResearch Safety Guidelines

Jungwon Lee (U. Seoul) 20 mins., Discussion 10 mins.

15:00-15:50, Communication among Stakeholders - Necessity and Methodology

SangHoon Kim (KIST) 10 mins.. Discussion 40 mins.

15:50-16:10, Coffee Break

16:10-17:00, Bioethics vs. Nanoethics

Hanjo Lim (Ajou U.) 10 mins., Discussion 40 mins.

17:00-17:50, Researchers and Innovation

SunYang Chung (Konkuk U.) - General Aspect 10 mins.

WiChin Song (STEPI) - Social aspect 10 mins., Discussion 30 mins.

1750-1800, Summary – Chair.

18:00-2000, Dinner.

In the discussion, the stakeholders from different communities, including policy makers, NGOs, associations, industry, public research organizations, and different disciplines of universities will participate.

